04;04	LongYJL20140918	0:33:00	The family is in a shelter in their garden. The parents are behind the camera, cooking. The children play with sticks, building a house. ZJS then spots a big fern tree log, rolling it around the garden; YJL tries to join in. Halfway through it starts raining, and each child plays by themselves (little interaction from then on): ZJS plays off camera (with the log, and probably with a ball); YJL with some sticks; and ZDL tries to join in. 04;04	LongYJL20140926	1:05:37	The children talk, eat and play with cards (outside the house).	YJL (02;09)   ZDL (00;08)	in progress
04;04	LongYJL20141001	1:16:39	YJL and ZJS sit outside the door of their house and play (with a battery box, and a small knife). ZMS joints them for some time (in the first half hour), and mainly interacts with ZJS, while YJL largely engages in solitary play. ZDL is inside the house and can be heard babbling (not segmented). The father is inside the hut and keeps an eye on the children (adjusts the camera and calls them back when they stray too far away), but otherwise doesn't interact with them. Other adults are busy around the house, and can sometimes be heard in the background.	YJL (02;09)   ZDL (00;08)   ZMS (older cousin)   APA (father)	transcribed & translated
04;04	LongYJL20141008	1:00:12	The children sit in the space under the house, playing, talking, dancing and singing. The adults are in the background (digging and cutting grass, cooking), talking mainly to each other (largely inaudible and not transcribed), but also responding to the children. In the end, they sit together for a meal.	YJL (02;09)   ZDL (00;09)   APA (father)   BLN (mother)   BGS (uncle)   Unknown (adult)	glossed

04;05	LongYJL20141016	1:44:14	The two older children sit inside the house and make music (singing, drumming with a bamboo), pretending to be in a bamboo orchestra. They also engage in shadow play, pretending that the figures at the walls are dancers. The adults and their baby brother are inside the house, too, and mainly interact with each other, and only sometimes with the children or the baby. 04;05	LongYJL20141023	1:00:01	The children prepare greens for cooking (outside the house).	YJL (02;10)   Unknown (children)	in progress
04;05	LongYJL20141031	1:03:09	At the beginning, the family stays in the house and the children share an avocado; the mother cooks outside. Later, they move outside, and the children build huts. A woman arrives from the market, bringing corn, and stays for a meal. The adults and the baby brother remain behind the camera (talking to each other), and the three older children remain in front of the camera (talking to each other); there is occasional interaction between the two groups. The two older boys later leave and stay behind the house, and YJL remains alone in front of the camera eating peanuts. Towards the end, the visitor leaves, and the adults interact with YJL and ZDL. 04;06	LongYJL20141112	1:02:28	The children play on a bed in front of the camera, the adults are behind the camera. In the beginning, the two older children (YJL, ZJS) play outside the door of the house, and the adults try to get them to come inside. The first 20 minutes are spent setting up the scene, triggering much protest from the children (ZJS, ZDL) and much language directed at the children. Once everyone has settled down, the adults cook and talk behind the camera, while the older children play and talk to each other in front of the camera. Sometimes the children seem to listen in to the adult's conversation. And in between, there is interaction between the adults and children, including especially commands and jokes. ZDL moves around in the background, sometimes interacting with the adults and/or children.	YJL (02;10)   ZDL (00;10)   APA (father)   BLN (mother)   Unknown (adults)	transcribed & translated

04;06	LongYJL20141120	0:39:41	The children play in front of the house (singing and dancing, rolling/throwing oranges); in between, they sit down to eat. The parents are in the background, talking mainly to each other (largely inaudible and not transcribed), but also responding to the children. In the end, an unknown visitor arrives, and the camera is switched off.	YJL (02;11)   ZDL (00;10)   APA (father)   BLN (mother)   Unknown (adult)	glossed
04;06	LongYJL20141127	1:18:17	YJL and ZJS play and dance outside of the house; ZDL is also present and sometimes joins them. The adults are behind the camera, mostly talking amongst themselves (not transcribed) and occasionally interacting with the children. After around 20 minutes, BGS sits with the children in front of the camera, talking to them (but eliciting only few responses. After around 30 minutes, AFL joins them in front of the camera, and they all have a meal. The adults have a conversation (transcribed), and the children are mostly quiet (but there are a few unsuccessful attempts by ZJS to attract the adults' attention). Following the meal (after around 40 minutes), the adults move behind the camera (and continue their conversation; not transcribed), while the children stay in front of the camera, and start talking and playing again. 04;06	LongYJL20141129	1:18:48	The two older children play with their baby brother in the veranda-like covered area just outside their house (dancing, singing, jumping about, talking); the baby brother has just learned how to walk. The adults are in the background, doing chores, occasionally interacting with each other, and talking about the baby's first steps. Later, the family eats together and interacts with each other. 04;06	LongYJL20141203	1:01:59	The children sit inside the garden hut, play with household items (comb, scraper, tin), eat peanuts and talk to each other. The adults are in the background (the mother cooks; the grandmother arrives from the garden), talking to each other and with the children. Halfway through, a heavy rain starts falling down, making the recording at parts unintelligible.	YJL (02;11)   ZDL (00;10)   BLN (mother)   ADN (grandmother)	glossed

The parents are behind the camera and occasionally interact with the children. In the last third of the session, two men stop by and join the parents: from that point on, they have a conversation behind the camera (which is transcribed wherever audible), and only occasionally interact with the children. 04;09	LongYJL20150303	0:55:40	A group of four children (YJL, ZJS, ZFM, ZXK) interacts and plays with bush material cars (made of sticks and pomelos) and their parts (throws pomelos, jumps around on sticks, uses sticks for drumming), and romp around. They are in the grassy area outside of the house, and there is much going to and from. Some of the children sometimes leave (to get more material or interact with someone off camera), and other participants arrive for brief periods, interact with the children and leave again. Far away in the background, there continues to be interaction between various people, which is sometimes audible; sometimes someone from that group is interacting with the children, shouting at them. Their father is in the background, interacting with them. After about 35 minutes, other adults arrive and have a conversation with the father, occasionally interacting with the children, and ZJS occasionally addressing the adults. From that point on, there is little talk between the children. After about 45 minutes, night has fallen and it is too dark to see anything.
